Annex 7: The List of NRM Manifesto Commitments 2021-2026 for the Education and Sports Sector

2021-2026 Manifesto Commitment	Progress Made
A) School Charges in Universal Education Programs (NRM Manifesto 2021-2026, page 203):
1. The Ministry of Local Government should get to every village assembly in all the 68,000 villages of Uganda to pass a resolution on this (issue of school charges in U.P.E. and U.S.E. Schools)
B) EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION (NRM Manifesto 2021-2026, page 210):
2. Improve Early Childhood Development (ECD) through institutionalizing training for ECD caregivers at public PTCs and enforcing regulatory and quality assurance system of ECD standards.
C) PRIMARY EDUCATION (NRM Manifesto 2021-2026, page 210):
3. Provision of instructional materials by continuing to increase the budget allocation to textbooks and scholastic materials to reach a (pupil-to-textbook) ratio of 5:1.
4. Increase community participation in the affairs of schools in their respective areas and report problems like teacher absenteeism and cases of sending away children.
5. Roll out the Integrated Inspection ICT biometric system in all public schools, which will enable access to real-time data for quick decision-making. The system will be rolled out in all public primary schools in phases as detailed below: a) Year 1 – 3,300 schools b) Year 2 – 4,500 schools c) Year 3 – 2,384 schools

2021-2026 Manifesto Commitment	Progress Made
6. Progressively enhancing salaries and improving other living conditions, particularly staff accommodation for teachers as the economy improves.
7. Continue improving the quality of education by strengthening supervision.
8. We are going to introduce the school feeding program. We are studying the implementation mechanism.
D) SECONDARY EDUCATION (NRM Manifesto 2021-2026, page 211):
9. Construction of 258 new secondary schools in sub-counties without a public secondary school.
10. Provision of instructional materials — improve the teacher/ scholastic material ratio by providing textbooks to both public and private secondary schools aiming at reaching a teacher to book ratio of 1:3 for the (revised) Lower Secondary Curriculum.
11. Complete the ongoing construction projects (of schools) mentioned above.
12. Progressively rehabilitate the traditionally historical public secondary schools.
13. Operationalize new government-owned and grant-aided schools by recruiting secondary school teachers and providing science equipment (science kits, reagents, and ICT equipment).
14. Promote e-learning and computer literacy.
E) BUSINESS, TECHNICAL AND VOCATIONAL EDUCATION TRAINING (BTJET) [NRM Manifesto 2021-2026, page 211-212]:
15. Deal with under-utilization of (public) BTJET institutions through relaxing entry requirements so that willing learners,

2021-2026 Manifesto Commitment	Progress Made regardless of previous qualifications, are eligible for admission. The language of instruction will be tailored to learners' proficiency to give a chance to youth who are willing to acquire skills and certificates.
16. Establish Nwoya Agro-processing Technical Institute and upgrade the six BTVET institutions to centres of excellence.
17. Complete the construction of facilities in 21 BTVET Institutions, as follows (212):
